(2) how little did I think the day that I left home that in three months time that I would be in France it was just three MOonths to the day from the time I left home until I arrived in France. I enjoyed the trip across the Water very Much I never got sea sick as some of the others did the more the old ship rocked the better I liked it I believe I Would like to be a sailor sooner than a soldier. but I guess I Will have to be continte Where I am. I have got a pretty good job now. I am Working in the stable taking Care of the horses. I hope I can keep that job. but We Never know one day ahead of the other What We Will do on the Morrow that is the Way of soldier. Well Dear Aunt I got a letter from My Dear MOther yesterday and believe me that I were more than glad to hear from her once More she said that she is feeling better than she had sone for some time Which I Were glad to hear she seems to thing that I am not very
