Alva and Zella Matheson files from LaKay M. Weber's home.

years in Kingston, but I was alone indeed, I passed the Bitterest

Time of my Life there, you know something of that. But it is past, and God has bin kind to me, remembered me in my old Age, and blessed me. Things looks brighter, I feel like being among Friends, and may my heavenly help me, to so live, as to deserve all these Blessings.

Love to all of you, tell Loretta and Floyd, that Grandma would like to see them, and all of you, but I d on't think I shall come over.

Now my dear Girl, I want you to Cheer up, and thank God for the Blessings, he has bestowed upon you and yours, lets not give way, to what I call the Blues, but look with hope, that all will be well.
