Alva Zella Matheson and LaKay's papers from LaKay M. Weber's Home

so lonesome I can hardly contain myself. I want to go up and phone him just to hear him say "Hi, Pill." I guess I must be in love with the character.
Honestly, Mommie, it's absolutely amazing how much alike our minds work. The things you asked me to be sure about in my letter, are the very things I had been wondering about and checking up on. All e xcept the question on education & vocational experience.

I already know about that.

I don't know about the job at Cedar, but he'll never a problem finding a job. He has just enough conceit (mostly cultivated,, I think) to sell himself well.

He has the same degree I have, an associate, but in arts, not science, from San Francisco City College.
He has worked in a ship yard for some time before he entered the service. He cooked in a r estaurant in "Frisco" for two years, and took courses under some of the most famous French chefs.
He was an engineer in the air force, so knows a lot
