Alva and Zella Matheson files from LaKay M. Weber's home.

and they look very pretty.

I hope you like your dress. If it doesn't fit in anyway send it back for a larger size but I hope that it is just right. I tried it on and it was too large for me. I like it very much and think it just looks like Mamma. I can hardly wait to see you in it, but until then I will be satisfied with knowing that you have something nice to wear when you really want to. We did it just because we wanted to, and remembered the many dresses you have given us while you have done with out. We love you - that's why.

Say I don't know what to think of my sporty Sis. She'll be putting me on the shelf for sure.
To think of her going with Dewey is a little beyond my imagination and I have been told that I have a good imagination too. Just so she doesn't cut me out when I come home it is all right. But if she started in on old bachelors like — she'll be robbing old age for sure.

I do not know Carmen Norton. Is he a brother to Karl. Is he older or younger? Karl said he was leaving soon, but that he didn't know where he would go. He may have gone. I received his last letter a week ago today (Saturday). I hope to get another one soon. If he goes to Salt Lake he will probably be home for Christmas, and even if Reva is home to it will mean a dance or two for me.
