Alva and Zella Matheson files from LaKay M. Weber's home.

my mind to dwell on the future for any girl, and shut out the love, and joys, of the past, that are past. I would become useless, should I humor myself in thinking of these things. My hope for happiness is my girls. I hope they will always love and enjoy coming home. That I can never hope to make it more than half a home any more.
I hope Clarence will plan on a week of rest here with us before he goes farther.

My girls' homesick letter makes it almost impossible for me to wait untill
