Alva and Zella Matheson files from LaKay M. Weber's home.

much out side of home life to make it pass for young folks. Work is about the only resource.

We would certainly enjoy having our big girlie ,sister, at home a winter. If you have really decided that you don't want to finish your high school course. Next winter would be your best chance for that because the girls will be ready making a bigger expense the next winter. If you were going on we would have to arrange for your spending the summer at home or most of it because we can't afford to be separated all of the time.

I am so glad you are enjoying the winter more in a social way, even if your marks do suffer a little. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.
I know Zella well enough, to not worry, what some would consider good marks, are low
