My dear Little Girl

I did not get your letter til late last night, so of course could not send you Word, I had decided to go over to Kingston

Christmas Eve, George is coming over for me, and I intended to stay all night if I could find some one to keep me over night, but I have most given up going to Kingston, I have no pleasant remembrances to urge me there, but my Children.

me back, but days are too short and I don't wish to impose on him to that extent but I appreciate the kindness shown, and ask my Father in heaven, to bless you and Andrew, to heal the wound of over

I thank you for wishing me at your home, and am pleased to know, that Andrew would come for me and take
