Kingston April 13/43

My darling girl,

I wrote a

note this morning, and sent to you, Haven't written a letter this week. Received two yesterday, one today.

The dress question

you mention, is familiar.

You will overcome the situation, in time.

One becomes unacquainted with clothes, people, and the usual pursuits of life, until they feel

as if they would never fit in again. They never do get back in the
