Darling Zella Vee

I am so glad you can relieve Sister, from the nursery business, for a short time, once in a while.

She certainly needs it.

There is no occupation that gives more real joy than the care of babies and children.

Yet there is nothing that is so trying, tiring and hard on the nerves.

You certainly have inherited

Daddy's love for, and ability to sleep. I am glad you have found an antidote for it you want to be awake.

That you are not troubled
