Alva Zella Matheson and LaKay's papers from LaKay M. Weber's Home

Before I tell you about the rest of the day I'll have to go back to Sunday evening and bring it up from there. We had a wonderful fireside.
Elder Gunn, a guide on temple square, spoke. He told many inspiring incidents.
There were only four fellows there. Three of them sat just in front of us. One has a girl, one is quite badly crippled.
The other was extremely cute. He fooled around for a while, and when we left he followed along with us.
Marian & Anita went on ahead and when we got to the church where his car was, he offered us a lift on home. We accepted and came home by way of City Creek Canyon, a view of the city from the North-east, and Capitol Hill, plus a very interesting conversation.

The next evening about 15 minutes before he called me, I found out that his name is Charles Weber. He called, and we went to a drive-in theatre. Then came the revelation. Talk about a wolf! I never ran into a line quite like it.
He's O.K. really but he's a bachelor.
