Hi Folks,

I've only got a minute to write in, and Carol is jabbering a blue streak,

so I may not get to much written, but here goes.

Howard was here last night.

He really looks good, and was so thrilled with it all.

He met a man over there who had a lot of Matheson history, and he brought back a ring with the Matheson crest on it. And, he bought himself a kilt in the Matheson tartan. I can hardly wait to see it. The tartan itself is beautiful. He came over to the library last night just about 10 minutes before class let out, and we talked with him until time for his bus to leave for home.

He's really had a wonderful experience. I'm still disappointed because he didn't take me along.
