records from Alva and Zella (Barnson) Matheson and La Kay (Matheson) Weber collected during their lives and from their ancestors

The other day we happened to gaze into our crystal ball and read the future of these ninth grade students. We saw that:

Bruce Rigby is now cop of the town.

Jack Sargent has replaced Roy Rogers.

Ira Sechoppman has lost his laugh and again become a man instead of a horse.

Cleo Esplin has become a nurse,

Elaine Sherratt is still chasing the Parowan boys.

Aileen Bauer is now the wife of that great horse doc; R Macfarlane, Luree Condie is singing grand opera.

Tommy Givins has taken the place of Tommy Dorsey,

Gail Miles-is now in his fathers place as School Principal.

Alvin Cox has become a farmer, raising future farmerettes.

Phyllis Reeves has found herself a new boy friend.

La Dawna Walker is now the wife of a sailor.

Vera Urie is still hot on the trail of P.L.

Teddy Bird is still trying to find a girl to go steady with him,

Shirley Green is still changing boy friends every five minutes.

Forrest Terry has lost his buck teeth for pearly store ones,

Dorothy Jones is visiting the little house on the hill.

Helen Petty is still chasing Gary Middleton.

Carlyle Hunter will still be starting to come to school,

Jeannine Thompson is starring in Broadway shows,

Janice Simkins is queening it in the Movies.

Brent Palmer was designing buildings for the World Fair of Tomorrow, while

JL. Barlow is studying Art in Paris,

Milan Roundy was tripping the light fantastic in the ballet.

Cloyd Orton was teaching school in Lund and,

Alan Seegmiller teaching all his little girls to play the clairnet,.

Kent Wood is still Don Juaning over the country, and

Vvs Haslam had settled down to keeping house and ten hours of sleep every night.
